

Brian C. Wills: is an astute, competent, tenacious senior executive offering more than fifteen years of broad based experience in the field of international business. He specializes in Customs law and regulations, compliance and brokerage. Brian has held various senior positions with major U.S. Customs broker/freight forwarders. He is currently the Director of Customs brokerage and the qualifying officer for Associated Global Systems. Mr. Wills is a licensed Customs broker and is well know throughout the industry. He is currently a member of the National Customs Broker & Freight Forwarding Association of America as well as the J.F.K Broker Association.