

Gerald Peluso, Supervisor Export Air
ASSOCIATED GLOBAL SYSTEMS, INC.

Gerald Peluso has over 30 years operations and management experience in the air freight forwarding & logistics industry. He started working right out of high school in this exciting and interesting field. Gerald has traveled overseas to Europe and as far as Cairo, Egypt to get customers shipments delivered on time to its destination.

Throughout his career, Gerald has made solid contributions in managing and supervising. His basic strength is in the area of air freight & exporting management. Having the proper documentation and utilizing the right transportation carriers is the key to getting the product to its final destination.

Mr. Peluso went for two year Business Management and Administration evening program at Hofstra University. He also completed two years business Psychology & Management at New York City Community College.

Mr. Peluso is married with two children in college.