Richard Sackin has over 30 years of experience in the fields of accounting and taxation. He is active in the International Tax Forum of Baker Tilly International and is the Partner-in-Charge of Amper's International Services Group.

Rich has many years of experience in handling international tax matters, both with U.S. corporations regarding controlled foreign subsidiaries and foreign corporations regarding inbound transactions, as well as transfer pricing for re-organizations and expatriate tax issues. Rich co-authored Prentice Hall's New Jersey Tax Handbook and has spoken before the World Trade Institute in New York on international tax matters.

Prior to joining Amper, Rich was a partner and director of the tax department of the New Jersey office of Ernst & Young. He holds a Bachelor of Arts Degree in Accounting from Upsala College and has completed the Columbia University Executive Management Program.

Rich is a member of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants and served two terms on the Board of Directors of the New Jersey Society of Certified Public Accountants (NJSCPA), where he was also Vice President and a member of the Executive Committee. He is currently a member of the Society of Cooperative Accountants and the Taxation Resource Committee of the NJSCPA, past president of the NJSCPA's Bergen Chapter and past chair of the NJSCPA's Human Resource Committee. He is also a board member of the Brain Injury Association of New Jersey. In addition, Rich served as president of Cancer Care, Inc. of New Jersey and as board member of the National Executive Committee of Cancer Care.
